The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;

The objective of the action is to increase cultural diversity through fostering a fair and realistic vision of migration through improving cooperation between local and regional authorities, and promoting dialogue frameworks for local migration governance policies.

• Conduct workshops to strengthen local capacities;
• Draft an intercultural coexistence action plan for municipalities;
• Organise an international seminar on diversity and management;
• Conduct a research on local migration and public perceptions;
• Increase awareness through an educational campaign;

• Improved perception of migration;
• Integrated migration policies into municipal action plans;
• Display of positive and intercultural values of migration;