

Call for applications

EMM5 Training for Young Migration Professionals

Malta,
21-25
February
2022

EUROMED Migration V (EMM5), an EU-funded programme implemented by the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD), is organising in February 2022 the first Euro-Mediterranean Training for Young Migration Professionals (TYMP).

The training is dedicated to enhance young professionals' migration policy skills via the delivery of specialised and high-standard learning modules. This 5 days' course is designed specially for motivated graduates in migration policy and starting professionals from North Africa and the Middle East. It aims to provide them with a comprehensive package of skills and knowledge, reflecting state-of-the-art practice in the international migration policy community. By participating in the course, young professional will develop their career aspirations and become frontline promoters of good practices in the development of sustainable and evidence-driven migration policies.

EMM5 is inviting interested persons to apply to the Training for Young Migration Professionals which will take place in Malta on 21-25 February 2022. The training is a fully-accredited programme, run by recognised policy experts and organised by a referenced international organisation in the field of migration policy. All expenses are covered!

Interested candidates are invited to submit applications by 9 January 2022.

What will I learn?

Participants will be trained in various aspects of migration policy-making with a special focus on Euro-Mediterranean issues. The training programme will be divided between knowledge and skills modules to help participants self-develop and gain valuable practical skills applicable in a wide variety of settings and contexts. The training is fully accredited by the Maltese Ministry of Higher Education: Successful participants will receive academic credits recognised and transferable under the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS).

Training modules as well as all related material will be delivered in English. The programme will take place in small groups (up to 12 participants) to foster a conducive learning atmosphere and ensure individual monitoring by our team of qualified course instructors.

Indicative list of modules:

- Strategic Policy-Making
- Policy-Making processes
- Behavioural science for policy-making
- Impact Assessment

Am I eligible?

The training is open to all motivated young professionals from the Middle East and North Africa region with an academic or professional background in migration issues. Candidates must be graduates (BA-level minimum) and/or display limited professional experience in migration issues or related fields (academia and research, humanitarian work, policy support, administration, etc). Verbal and written fluency in English is an essential requirement. Candidates from all age groups and residence are invited to submit an application.

Required:

- National from the Middle East or north Africa region
- Recent graduate from an academic programme with a focus on migration issues OR professional with limited work experience (less than 2 years)
- Motivation to undertake a career in public administration, international organisations, civil society or research
- Fluency in English, spoken and written
- Availability to attend the programme in presence in Malta in February 2022

Desirable:

- Familiarity with Euro-Mediterranean migration policy development and issues

Where is it taking place?

The training will take place in the premises of the ICMPD's Regional Office for the Mediterranean in Valletta, Malta.

What if I am selected to participate?

EMM5 covers all fees related to participation to the training. This includes, full tuition fees, travel to (and back from) Malta as well as individual accommodation and meals for the duration of the training.

Timeline

How to Apply?

The application process is entirely virtual. Please submit your application at emm5\_training@icmpd.org
Make sure to include the following documentation:

- Filled out applicant information form. Access the form here
- Your CV

Have more questions?

Send all your queries related to the training or the application process to Emm5\_training@icmpd.org

