Workshop on Legal Migration and Mobility
05 & 06 February 2013, Tunis (Novotel Hotel)

In the framework of the Project “EU-Tunisia Migration Cooperation Agenda” (ETMA) financed by the European Union and implemented by the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD), ICMPD-Tunis office will organise a 2-day Workshop on 05 and 06 February 2013 in Tunis that will address issues related to Legal Migration and Mobility jointly with relevant authorities of the Republic of Tunisia.

This event will involve several public bodies interested in these questions and will allow designated participants to share and exchange experience among Tunisian and European colleagues with a view to concretely solve or start addressing challenges that Tunisia is currently facing in those domains.

The global objective of this project is to promote a comprehensive migration-related cooperation programme through widened technical cooperation, exchange of knowledge and experience as well as support to the National authorities for the formulation of a strategy addressing each and every single aspects linked to a coherent and balanced migration management system in Tunisia.

The European Commission is the EU’s executive body.

“The European Union is made up of 27 Member States who have decided to gradually link together their know-how, resources and destinies. Together, during a period of enlargement of 50 years, they have built a zone of stability, democracy and sustainable development whilst maintaining cultural diversity, tolerance and individual freedoms. The European Union is committed to sharing its achievements and its values with countries and peoples beyond its borders.”
