Workshop on Return and Reintegration of Migrants
12 & 13 December 2012, Tunis (Novotel Hotel)

In the framework of the Project “EU-Tunisia Migration Cooperation Agenda” (ETMA), financed by the European Union and implemented by the International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD), the ICMPD-Tunis office, jointly with relevant authorities of the Republic of Tunisia, will hold a 2-day workshop on 12 and 13 December 2012 in Tunis that will address issues related to the return and reintegration of migrants.

This event will involve several public bodies interested in these topics and will allow participants to share their experiences among Tunisian and European colleagues with a view to concretely solving or start addressing challenges that Tunisia is currently facing in those areas.

The global objective of this project is to promote a comprehensive migration-related cooperation programme through widened technical cooperation, the exchange of knowledge and experience, as well as support to the national authorities for the formulation of a strategy addressing each and every aspect linked to a coherent and balanced migration management system in Tunisia.

The European Commission is the EU’s executive body.

"The European Union is made up of 27 Member States who have decided to gradually link together their know-how, resources and destinies. Together, during a period of enlargement of 50 years, they have built a zone of stability, democracy and sustainable development whilst maintaining cultural diversity, tolerance and individual freedoms. The European Union is committed to sharing its achievements and its values with countries and peoples beyond its borders."
